

RESTORING EDEN SUMMER INTERNSHIP

Restoring Eden is a national ministry that encourages Christians to learn to love, serve, and protect God's creation. Our goal is to empower Christians to engage in faithful stewardship of the natural world through education, public advocacy, environmental stewardship, and nature appreciation. We accept our responsibility to examine our role as Christians in pursuing solutions and to consider the impact of our lives upon the earth and humanity.

POSITION SUMMARY

Restoring Eden is growing, and we want to spread the word about our JUSTpower campaign. This summer, we are traveling to Christian music festivals around the country as part of an effort to inform and mobilize Christians who care about the earth and the impact we have on it.

We are looking for 2 – 4 interns to join us this summer. As an intern, you will have the opportunity to be a key part of the growing Christian environmental movement at a very exciting time, get experience in grassroots organizing, and develop invaluable contacts in the nonprofit world.

ELEGIBILITY

We are seeking passionate, motivated applicants who want to stand together against environmental injustice and who have the following qualities:

- Ability to speak comfortably about the connection between Christian faith and caring for creation.
- Flexible and willing to do some traveling if necessary.
- Excellent oral and written communication skill
- A demonstrated interest in environmental issues.
- Well-organized

COMMITMENT

Hours: Full-time

When: June – August, 2010 (dates are negotiable)
